ST. CLOUD WILL DO HER PART IN Y. M. C. A. CAMPAIGN

"ST. CLOUD, A HAVEN OF REST FOR GRAND ARMY MEN," SAYS HURLBERT, OF CLEVELAND, O.

With the city filling rapidly from every part of the country, there is always those who see things as they are and who are so well pleased with the surroundings of St. Cloud that they desire to make it known to others who have never had the pleasure of visiting the city. That St. Cloud is a "Haven of rest for Grand Army men," is the opinion of one of our recent newcomers, W. L. Hurlbert, of Cleveland, O., who is in the city for his first visit. He has been all over St. Cloud, and of the delightfulness of life in this city, let him tell it in his own words:

In the last twelve years I have visited many cities and towns in Florida, and in many respects I have seen none to compare with this pretty little place, with its beautiful lake, pretty park, fine buildings, paved streets, electric lights, city water works, with the very best water to be found in the state, with a wonderful, world renowned climate, and what is almost unbelievable, free from that pest, the mosquito. That in itself is quite enough to make a man leave home and mother for St. Cloud. As soon as I find a suitable place here I will become a permanent resident, as it surely is a haven of rest for the old Grand Army men, of which this town is composed. Here they may have the banner post with the finest hall in the state. On the main street they have a fine club room, fitted up exclusively for their benefit, where they pass many pleasant hours playing all kinds of games, recalling old reminiscences and extending the glad hand to the fellow who wears the little bronze button. For amusement and sociability it leads the world.

Why stay in the frozen north to shovel snow and stand shivering near the register and radiators, with a scarcity of fuel. Come to St. Cloud, where the sun shines every day on both sides of the street and the balmy breezes are laden with the perfume of flowers.

PRESIDENT CALLS TO THANKSGIVING

PROCLAMATION NAMING THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 29.

Says We Are "Serving Mankind as We Once Served Ourselves."

President Wilson's Thanksgiving proclamation is as follows:

"It has long been the custom of our people to turn in the fruitful autumn of the year in praise and thanksgiving to Almighty God for his many blessings and mercies to us as a nation. That custom we can follow now even in the midst of the tragedy of a world shaken by war and immeasurable disaster, in the midst of sorrow and great peril, because even amidst the darkness that has gathered about us we can see the great blessings God has bestowed upon us, blessings that are better than mere peace of mind and prosperity of enterprise.

"We have been given the opportunity to serve mankind as we once served ourselves in the great day of our Declaration of Independence, by taking up arms against a tyranny that threatened to master and debase men everywhere and joining with other free peoples in demanding for all the nations of the world that we then demanded and obtained for ourselves.

"In this day of the revelation of our duty not only to defend our own rights as a nation, but to defend also the rights of free men throughout the entire world, there has been vouchsafed us in full and inspiring measure the resolution and spirit of united action. We have been brought to one mind and purpose. A new vigor of common counsel and common action has been revealed in us. We should especially thank God that in such circumstances in the midst of the greatest enterprise the spirits of men have ever entered upon, we have, if we but observe a reasonable and practicable economy, abundance with which to supply the needs of those associated with us as well as our own. A new light shines about us. The great duties of a new day awaken a new and greater national spirit in us. We shall never again be divided or wonder what stuff we are made of.

"And while we render thanks for these things let us pray Almighty God that in all humbleness of spirit we may look always to Him for guidance; that we may be kept constant in the spirit and purpose of service; that by His grace our minds may be directed and our hands strengthened; and that in His good time liberty and security and peace, and the comradeship of a common justice may be vouchsafed all the nations of the earth.

"Wherefore, I, Woodrow Wilson, president of the United States of America, do hereby designate Thursday, the 29th day of November next as a day of Thanksgiving and prayer and invite the people throughout the land to cease upon that day from their ordinary occupations and in their several homes and places of worship to render thanks to God, the great ruler of all nations.

"In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the great seal of the United States to be affixed.

"Done in the District of Columbia, this 7th day of November, in the year of our Lord One Thousand nine hundred and seventeen, and the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and forty-second."

WOODROW WILSON,
"By the President,"
"Robert A. Lansing, Sec. of State."

Union Mass Meeting Next Sunday

There is to be a Union Mass Meeting at the G. A. R. Hall next Sunday evening at 7:30, in the interest of the Y. M. C. A. campaign that is being made under the authorization of the president. We are being asked for $1,000 as the part St. Cloud should pay toward this fund. The entire country is being asked for $35,000,000. This seems to be a large sum, and so it is, but when the needs are considered, and when the good work is considered, it is not too much, nor is it enough, for we will need to pay again and again, as the war continues.

AN AMERICAN PLEDGE

In this time of national crisis, I do pledge myself to support the military, financial and economic policies of my country. I do this, first, because the United States stands for democracy; for the right of the people to a voice in their government. Under this government I have received a good education; I have been protected in my life and property, and I have had an opportunity to enter any activity in life for which I am fitted.

I make this pledge, secondly, because I believe democracy not only in the United States, but also throughout the world, is threatened by the ambitions of the German Kaiser and his advisers.

He has established a military system whose avowed purpose is conquest.

He has waged war by barbarous and inhuman methods, the principal sufferers of which have been helpless men and women and children;

He has encouraged a course of instruction by which the youth of his nation has been educated to believe in force and conquest. He has repudiated treaties.

He has violated all the principals of humanity and international law in his treatment of the conquered Belgians.

He has conspired against our own country while at peace with us.

He has sought to embroil us in war with other countries;

He has based his policy toward other nations upon falsehood and deceit.

For these reasons I accept the judgment of the president that no man and no nation can depend upon the word or treaty of the present German government.

For these reasons I pledge myself and my property to the cause of my country and I will accept whatever service I am able and fitted to undertake.

The St. Cloud Unit of the Red Cross netted $84.85, and the public of St. Cloud enjoyed a delightful entertainment last Monday evening at the G. A. R. Hall, when a local talent play was presented for the benefit of the Red Cross fund.

Special mention can not be made of every feature of the program in such limited space, but every person assisting in making the entertainment a success deserves special credit for the affair. The work of Professor C. Constantine and Mrs. Gertrude Sanford, in training the young people who rendered the program and furnishing the music has been highly commended and justly so. City Books Being Audited By the Jacksonville Expert

Last Friday, Roy DeLong, representing the Hutchinson Audit Company, of Jacksonville, started work of auditing the books of the city clerk and tax collector and treasurer, with a view to preparing a certified report of the city's finances, which will be published by the council. Mr. DeLong is considered one of the best auditors in the South and his work will include all business transactions of the city from the time the present clerk and auditor and tax collector took their office in March, 1915, to the present date. The books were audited when turned over to Messrs. Kenney and Gill at the time they took their office.

The report is expected to be finished this week and to be published in the issue of the Tribune for the week of November 22nd.

RETAILERS WARNED ON SUGAR PRICES

FOOD ADMINISTRATION TELLS CONSUMERS NOT TO PAY OVER 9-CENTS A POUND.

(Minneapolis News.)

Retailers that charge more than 9c a pound for sugar will be denied further supplies, it was announced today by Frederick D. Southall, representative here of H. C. Earle, Minneapolis sugar broker, who has been appointed manager of the food administration's sugar distributing committee, with his headquarters at Chicago.

"On instructions from the food administration," said Mr. Earle, "I have notified jobbers that they must refuse to sell any more sugar to retailers who charge excessive prices. Retailers should not get more than 9c a pound. The price to the jobber has been fixed at $7.50 a hundred pounds, and to the wholesaler at $7.85. No price has been officially set for retailers, and consequently some of them are charging 10c and 11c a pound. This is a crime.

"Consumers should protect themselves in this matter. When they find a retailer charging an extortionate price they should report him to me or to any wholesaler, and the retailer will get no more sugar. The profits of the refiners are limited. The jobber may not make more than 25c on a hundred pounds. Wholesalers' charges are likewise restricted. Why should the retailer take advantage of the situation, as in many cases he is doing."

While retail grocers have agreed among themselves not to sell more than 50c worth of sugar to any one customer owing to the temporary shortage, many consumers have evaded the regulation by shopping at several stores, Mr. Southall said.

"In a few days," he said, "the sugar shortage will be over, because shipments are coming along better. More than a million bags a week are being made. There never would have been a shortage, had selfish people not hoarded supplies."

"There is no actual sugar famine in any part of Minnesota. I know of no town where people can not get sugar in small quantities.

"Soon there will be plenty available for everyone. While consumers should exercise economy, there need be no stinting. Meantime, let the people see to it that they are not victimized on prices."

First Impression of Our New Visitors on Arrival in St. Cloud

St. Cloud, Nov. 10, 1917.

The first impressions of one who has filled the soil in almost any of the states, on reaching St. Cloud, would be that nothing could be raised in the shape of garden truck on such barren-looking soil as presents itself. A call at the rooms of the St. Cloud Development Company, near the station, or a stroll down Ohio avenue, towards lovely Lake Tohopekaliga, with its gardens of flowers, fruit and vegetables, notably one owned by Mr. Ferdinand Rath, would convince the skeptic that his first impressions were incorrect. Let us glance at this place. Acaela and magnolia trees grace the front yard, nearly all the citrus fruits are represented on the grounds oranges, grapefruit, lemons and limes, beside peach, fig, papaya, guavas, Japanese plums, Japanese persimmons and bananas. The roses, pinks and other flowers in bloom, the vine covered porches of the well built house, speak of taste and of comfort. In the rear yard a well appointed henry furnishes a home for a fine looking colony of Plymouth Rock hens, while in the garden you will find almost every kind of vegetable that grows in the temperate zones, growing nicely, looking healthy and well cared for. There were no weeds.

One might naturally think that some landscape gardener owned the place and was using it for an advertisement, but I learned that the owner was a retired plumber, to whom gardening was a new business.

The most astonishing thing of all, however, is the fact that it will not be three years until the 25th of May, 1918, since the land was like the adjoining property, perfectly wild and unimproved. Now several of the orange and grapefruit trees are bearing fruit. All of which shows some of the possibilities of St. Cloud.

Saturday, November 10th, Vero celebrated her fifth birthday. It is estimated that at least two thousand people were present at the birthday party, and a splendid program was arranged for the occasion.

The farmers in the Dade county section of the state are preparing for a large harvest and more land is being cultivated. Prospects for large crops are exceedingly bright. Hundreds of acres are being planted to corn and other household necessities.

Contractors Wolf & Ewing of Miami, have been awarded the contract for the new Seminole building to be located at the corner of Seminole avenue and...

structure next week. Mr. R. E. Wolf will arrive in Vero soon and take personal charge of the work.

Tarpon Springs has levied a one-mill tax on its citizens to be used in advertising the city.

The Lee county agent reports to the State Experiment Station that one farmer who planted eight pounds of Egyptian wheat gathered 1,800 pounds the first crop, and is now harvesting the second crop. If the poultry food problem can be solved by this method this will become a great poultry country.

The special election to determine whether or not the Frost Proof Special Road and Bridge District shall be formed to issue $300,000 bonds for road improvements in that section was held on the 10th.

From one to two hundred crates of vegetables are leaving the Wauchula station daily and are being received. Eggplants are in the lead, and are quoted at from $3 to $4 per crate; cukes $4; peppers $2.50; squash $2; and beans $4 to $5. Shipments will continue to grow heavier until a killing frost.

Construction of a three-mile extension to the present railroad line from Viking to and over its holdings, together with additional ditching added, are among the improvements that are to be made by the Fort Pierce Farms Company this winter.

Mims is giving promise of being one of the most progressive cities of its size on the East Coast. Buildings are rapidly going up, the latest of these are a new three-story brick building block, a new theatre and a number of residences. The new electric light plant is just about completed and is about to open.

Attorneys of the city of St. Petersburg have won out in a suit recently tried before the Supreme Court, in which the validity of $180,000 worth of improvement bonds was attacked. Now that the bonds are declared valid, the city commissioners will proceed to advertise for bids on the work, which includes extensive improvements of the water front.

Major Hughes commanding officer at the Key West barracks, has started a movement whereby he will endeavor to have the Florida East Coast railroad and the city and government co-operate in the matter of securing fresh water for Key West. It is the intention to have a pipe run from the mainland, whereby a fresh supply of water will be received.

Details have been given out of the sale last week of the Lakeland Phosphate company to an eastern capitalist for a sum said to be $350,000, being one of the largest deals in phosphate properties in Polk county in some time. This plant is one of the most progressive and best paying in the big phosphate field and the company retiring was organized nearly four years ago with most of the capital being represented in Lakeland.

Boat trips entirely around the southern end of Pinellas peninsula will soon be possible. The big dredge which is completing the canal that will connect Boca Ciega Bay and Old Tampa Bay, has reached a point on the Lake Largo-Cross Bayou drainage district section of the work, within two miles of the waters of Old Tampa Bay. This is just about half of the work of this district, and contractor J. W. Campbell is rushing his contract to completion.

Having received its charter from the secretary of state, and filed it with the clerk of the circuit court, the National Livestock Commission Company, at Jacksonville held its organization meeting on the second and is now ready for business. The officers of the new company are C. C. Harlin, president; W. H. Hensley, vice president; J. F. Horne, secretary and treasurer. The and O. E. Cobb, of York, Ala., and S. B. Ward of East St. Louis, Ill.

By a vote of 14 to 0 the city council of Jacksonville recently adopted the 1917 budget with a millage of 15.5, embracing with it an appropriation of $50,000 for the purchase of additional land at Black Point for the probable enlargement of the big quartermaster's training camp. Although the millage is slightly higher than this year, which is 12.8, he reasons for the increase as outlined by Councilman W. H. Baker and John T. Alsop, Jr., is due to the war, and in all instances a necessity.

Notice of intention to ask for a charter for a new line of railway to be known as the Kissimmee River Railroad company, to be seven miles and a quarter long, extending southeastward from Wallawa, in Polk County, has been filed. The articles of incorporation show J. A. Griffin, of Tampa, to be president; E. M. Hendry, of Tampa, vice president and treasurer; and I. S. Craft, also of Tampa, secretary. It is understood that the new road is to be an extension of the Seaboard Air Line, and that it is a continuation of that road's gradual extension eastward, with regard to the cypress curving, east of living the above prices are probwhich some day will bring it to the East Coast. The new company is capitalized at $100,000, and its main office is given at Tampa. Those connected with the road had no comment to offer.

That an issue of $750,000 of good roads bonds voted by Hillsborough county would sell at par or very close to it, is the opinion expressed by J. G. Yeats, chairman of the board of county commissioners. The proposed bond issue for the extension of the present permanent road system to meet connecting roads from other counties has not yet been voted, but it is probable that an election will be called in a short time, as tentative contracts have been let for the construction work. Brick grouted with concrete and asphalt block are the two types of paving accepted.

WHERE DAD AND MOTHER WAIT

The Telling, has been handed the following poem by the city of St. Cloud, which was written by a corporal with Uncle Sam's army and sent back home to his parents, being printed in a northern paper:

What does a soldier think about, when he's away from home?

His mind is filled with hope—and doubt wherever he may roam.

But when the sun has stolen down behind the western gate.

He thinks about the little town where Dad and mother wait.

O, he may praise his lady love, as soldiers always do—

And he may go through hell to prove that what he says is true.

But when the light of day grows dim, he sits alone with fate.

And wonders if they think of him—Where Dad and mother wait.

When darkness steals o'er all the land and stars light up the sky,

And silence is on every hand, he's apt to sit and sigh—

He's apt to lay his dreams away with heart impatient.

And think of home, far, far away, where Dad and mother wait.

A soldier doesn't always grin—he isn't always warm—

He is a mere factotum in a khaki uniform.

But when the stars light up the way and when the night is late

His thoughts embrace that dear old place where Dad and mother wait.

FARM LIGHTING PLANTS

There will be shown at practically every state, county and district fair this fall a modern and simple device for producing electricity on the farm, and making electricity do the work which is now more or less laboriously performed.

While electric generators have been in use for years, they have not until recently been practical for farm use. They have been of the old belt-driven type, cooled by water, and were continually giving trouble because the water having been boiled away or frozen. This new type of dynamo is in one self-contained unit with the engine; it is air-cooled, and may be operated more readily by kerosene than by gasoline. This greatly reduces the fuel cost, which, in view of the present high price of gasoline, is particularly important. Their construction is so simple that they are set in motion by the movement of a lever, and will stop automatically when the battery is full. Children readily operate them; the only instructions necessary being a simple demonstration.

There is scarcely any kind of work that is not easily done by them. They light the home, the barn, the dairy, or any place where light is desired, and brilliant electric light may be had by the simple pressure of a button or the turning of a switch. Attached to the pump they keep the tank filled with fresh water, and the luxury of running water for the house, barn or dairy is enjoyed as in the city supplied by the costly water works system.

Current from these machines will operate the churn, the sewing machine, the corn sheller, the thrasher, the cream separator; in fact, any farm machinery of this sort to which it is attached. In a word, it provides the farm with the comforts and conveniences, due to electricity the same as are enjoyed in the large cities.

No one should miss the opportunity to see these remarkable machines in operation at the state and county fairs. Compared to the cost of electricity which they afford in the country districts where electric current is unobtainable, the cost of installing them is small, and when one sees and knows that they will readily do all that is claimed for them and more, it means the installation of a plant in the home at the first opportunity. Actual demonstrations of these farm light plants will be made at practically every fair, and undoubtedly it will prove one of the most attractive of all exhibits.

Carl Vrooman's denunciation of wasters as traitors and of foot soldiers as allies of the Kaiser ought to be framed as a wall motto for home and places of business.

ASK THE COUNTY AGENT

"Ask your county agent." That is the slogan of the band of patriots who in every county are doing so much good for the farmer. They are the "Johnnie-on-the-spot" boys who are ready at any time to advise the grower regarding what to plant and when to plant; to tell him how to get rid of aphids, or scale or salamander; how to set trees, spray or prune; to inoculate the hog, advise about the building of dipping vat or silo or the weaning of the calf. If in trouble consult your county agent.

FREE COTTON AIDS RED CROSS

New York, Nov. 14.—The first bale of the new 1917 cotton crop that was sold at auction here last July for $2.585, is now being exhibited in England, where it has raised $14,065 for the British Red Cross, according to information received by President G. M. Schmitt of the New York Cotton Exchange. The cotton was grown in the interior of Texas and the bale was first purchased in Houston for $925.

WAR AND THANKS—GIVING FESTIVITIES

There is a curious irony in Thanksgiving festivities while a nation is at war; in almost every home there will be at least one empty chair but it is perhaps just this situation which will draw more closely the ties of family affection. Commenting on this condition, a writer in the November issue of Good Housekeeping, says: "Let us try, first of all, to collect a big family. Find some one who would otherwise have to sit down to some lonely table. Economize we must in every way conceivable. It is possible, however, to plan and execute our menu with such cunning art that the economies will never be suspected." Here is a suggestion:

Uxbridge vegetable soup, toast strips; fried apple garnish, baked squash, roast turkey, giblet stuffing, turnips, onions, larded potatoes, spaghetti, Creole sauce; home-made picadillo, cranberry sauce, rings of brown bread; cold slaw, Russian dressing, crisp; General Taylor's pudding, concordia sauce; old-fashioned pumpkin pie, apple tart, and cheese; candied orange peel, coffee.

Every item in the foregoing may be prepared inexpensively and after showing how the author even suggests economical serving. To quote: "When serving, cut slices and serve without bones. What is left on the platter may be used in soup."

In connection with this article, a message, published in the same issue, from Herbert Hoover, is of genuine interest. "The Thanksgiving dinner this year should be festive, but not ornate. The day should be one of real thanksgiving, even for the mother who prepares and serves the dinner herself. Thanksgiving would not be thanksgiving without a chicken or turkey or without cranberries in some form. Potatoes and other vegetables there should be. Cornmeal bread is suggested as a reminder of our country's need to save wheat. Mince pie is omitted because that calls for unnecessary use of meat. Pumpkin pie is typically American, reminiscent of the first Thanksgiving day, and it has but one crust, thus economizing in wheat flour."

WAR TIME ECONOMY IN MODERN FASHIONS

War seems to have affected every item of daily life—and dress is not the least conspicuous among them. It is curious how much the latest styles have resulted from the insistent economies of war; it is noticeable in line, in materials, in color, in trimmings. To quote from an article in Good Housekeeping for November: "Although there has been no decided change in the silhouette, the winter clothes can be distinguished by their narrower skirts. And for the woman who makes her own clothes, there is nothing quite so satisfying as to find models that are simple enough in line to be easily made, and yet smart enough to give the appearance of coming from the best New York shops. The long-waisted line, the gathered tunic with the deep band of fur, and the tighter underskirt, are the newest notes of the season. The top coat worn with the one-piece dress is replacing, to a great extent, the tailored suit."

RUSSIAN SITUATION HOPEFUL

The soldier in the old Russian army had fewer rights than a dog and was treated far worse. The wonder is, not that the new Russian army has so little discipline, but that it has so much. So says Charles Edward Russell, the Root commissioner who has just returned from Russia, and whose article on the new Slav Republic in Hearst's Magazine for November amounts practically to an official report on Russian conditions. Mr. Russell, with a full knowledge of all that Russia is now going through, is very hopeful that the eastern situation, and believes that by next spring the Russian armies will again be doing their full share in making the world safe for democracy.

If they wait long enough the final cry for peace will be the death rattle.

SOCIETY TEACHES NAVY COOKS TO COOK

Many prominent society women, led by Mrs. Adrian Iselin, have given up social activities in order to teach sailors how to cook. Mrs. Iselin, writing in the November issue of Harper's Bazar, tells how, through her New York cooking school, these women are training able seamen to prepare food properly and are rapidly lessening the shortage of capable chefs in the navy. Rear Admiral Usher, U. S. N., has co-operated with Mrs. Iselin and has endorsed her work.

Germany's excuse for destroying cathedrals and hospital ships is that the allies are using them for military purposes, which gives a bright sidelight on junker methods.

The widow Brown sure has had bad luck with husbands. Her first husband died at the breakfast table; her second husband passed away at dinner recently. Mrs. Brown has invited Sailing Joe Pitney for supper next Friday night.

Slim Newman, our popular Bear Brummet, is breaking in a new pair of racy an button shoes for the coming dance of the Women's War Relief Club. Slim's great weakness is his love for terpsichore.

Soon we will hear the thousands of auto tourists that will be passing over the St. Cloud-Melbourne boulevard to and from the East Coast exclaiming how really wonderful the "Wonder City" is, and we are not worrying about holding our share of the home-seekers once they have tried this city for a place to live.—St. Cloud Tribune.

Yes, with a good road from the "Wonder City" to "Matchless" Melbourne, and to the ocean beach via the new bridge across the Indian river, thousands of tourists will also be exclaiming: "Will wonders never cease?" Melbourne Times.

Property owners should not forget that the new building restrictions contained in an ordinance passed some weeks ago by the council, apply to all repair work or additions as well as new buildings in the city, whether they are inside the fire limits or not. The fire limits, of course, have certain regulations that do not apply to the work outside the fire limits, but for all repair work or additions or new houses the city inspector should be consulted and a permit secured. Compliance with this ordinance, which has not been given the public through the press, however will probably save unpleasantness in the future. The city inspector is expected to do his duty, but does not wish to have any misunderstandings. Better post yourself if you are going to build or repair your house.

Every productive industry is on the battle line today and every man who quits it without good cause is a military deserter.—Chicago Herald.

Guessaz Family Has Given Uncle Sam Long Service

In August, 1913, Brigadier General Oscar C. Guessaz, brother of L. A. Guessaz, of the Tribune staff, retired from active service with the Texas National Guard, having been identified with that branch of the service after service in the Spanish-American war, but recently Oscar Guessaz became Colonel of the First Texas Infantry, in Uncle Sam's regular army, which is two regiments merged into one, making approximately four thousand men now under Colonel Guessaz's command.

At the time of Mr. Guessaz's retirement from the Texas National Guard, in 1913, the order of retirement announced the following service:

General Guessaz's service dates back to 1880, when he enlisted in Company A, Third Texas Infantry, and known locally as the San Antonio Rifles. His military record in the service of the state and of the nation is splendid. He was promoted last July to a brigadier generalship to succeed General Roy W. Hearne, of San Antonio, resigned.

In National Service
"First Lieutenant and quartermaster, Second Texas Volunteer Infantry, May 14, 1898; captain and quartermaster, United States Volunteers, June 28, 1898 to August 31, 1899.

Captain Guessaz was appointed Inspector of Rifle Practice of General Keiffer's Division, July, 1898. Erected rifle range and conducted rifle practice at Coconut Grove, Fla., until September, 1898. Assigned to General Wheeler's Brigade as quartermaster and detailed as inspector of rifle practice for the Seventh Corps. Replaced Avondale Rifle Range and conducted rifle practice at that range until December, 1898. Served in Cuba as quartermaster, First Brigade, First Division, Seventh Army Corps, until discharged, in August, 1899.

In State Service.
Enlisted 1886 in Company A, Third Infantry, San Antonio Rifles. Transferred

KICK COLUMN

Editor Tribune:

Can you not say some stirring words in the Tribune that will rouse our good city fathers to have these horrible and burrs burned up? The council can by our most excellent mayor's proclamation, fix a day on which the entire population can join in a general fire brigade and make a combined attack on the burrs and not let them get seeded in the ground, as we would have 50 billion more burrs than at present. It would be a foolish waste of any effort to cut them down, as that would put the seed on and into the ground.

Respectfully,

WM. P. LYNCH.

Letters To the Editor

With the Expeditionary Forces in France October 26, 1917.
Mr. Claude F. Johnson:

I was surprised to see my letter of August 19th in your paper. Had I known that it would have been published I would have taken more pains and made it worth while to publish. I appreciate the fact, however, that I am remembered still by my St. Cloud friends. One so far away without certainty of returning, learns to appreciate his friends at home. Mail day can't come too soon. It always seems to put new life in the boys.

I am feeling fine and getting enough work to make me fat, but I don't expect work will fatten me too much. I am working at a job I like and consider myself lucky.

Mrs. Johnson sent me a picture taken on Pennsylvania avenue just after the fire. I know that was a hard blow on St. Cloud, but I also know our enthusiastic people will rebuild bigger and better.

We are certainly being well clothed and fed. Uncle Sam is more generous to his soldiers in France than we expected. I might say that I have learned to eat stew, beans and soup, and really like it. This army life has taught me not to be as choicy as I used to be in civil life.

Of course, I haven't seen much of France, but judging from what I have seen I don't think I would care to make my home here. The people are good to us in most ways but I would rather be in dear old U. S. A.

Give all the boys my regards. I think of all my St. Cloud friends often.

Yours very truly,

HARRY JOHNSON,
Co. B, 17th Reg. Eng. Regt. U. S.
Expeditionary Forces in France.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Mosher, of New Bedford, Mass., arrived this morning to spend the winter in St. Cloud.

RELIEF CORPS.

L. L. Mitchell, W. R. C. met in regular session November 8th, with forty-five members present. There being no special work, the visitors and home-comers were called on for a few words. They all responded encouragingly and all agreed that it was good to be in St. Cloud. The president informed them that every third Friday we give an oyster supper for 25 cents, from four to six, and that they and all friends were cordially requested to attend. We practiced on our work as the department president was to be with us at our next meeting.

LADIES' IMPROVEMENT CLUB MEET

The Ladies Improvement Club met on the afternoon of November 7th in Memorial Hall with Dr. Cushman in the chair, and Miss Louise Hoppe, secretary, and a few visitors present. These are always welcome and to every new-comer in town, as well as to the residents, we extend a cordial invitation to meet with us every first and third Wednesday afternoon, at 2:30.

Since the previous regular meeting there had been an executive meeting called by the president. These minutes were read and endorsed after the reading of the minutes of the regular meeting. This meeting was held to make arrangements for Miss Metcalf's musical and partial arrangements for the Lyceum Course, which the Club has the management of this year.

Tickets for both of these are on sale at the Seminole Pharmacy, where they may be reserved. Members of the club also have them for sale. Everybody buy a ticket.

The matter of political science was taken up as a course of study throughout the winter, and the motion carried that once a month this be a part of the literary program.

The question of putting a railing up the stairway to the library room in the city hall was discussed and the motion put before the meeting was carried. This will enable those finding the ascent and descent of the stairs difficult to come to the library for books. The library is gradually being enlarged and new shelves are needed. The library committee was authorized to look after this matter.

The state convention for the Federation of women's clubs meets in Tampa in a few weeks, and Mrs. Hendrix was appointed to represent this club.

No further business coming before the club, the meeting was turned over to the program committee. A number of very interesting current events were given, after which two very enjoyable talks were given by Mrs. Zimmerman and Mrs. Hendrix. The former on Martin Luther and the latter on Luther's wife, a few weeks ago being the anniversary of the Reformation.

Meeting adjourned to meet November 21st. Everybody come and enjoy the meetings.

MORE HOGS IN FLORIDA

Pork can be transported more readily and economically to the troops in the field than can any other meat. Great supplies of bacon must go to the boys in khaki at the front. Unless now a larger number of sows are bred, the amount of meat we will require next year will not be available.

The estimated number of hogs is 4,000,000 less than it was a year ago in this country, and in the face of this we need more hogs than ever before. How can we get them? By breeding sows at once.

The exportation of pork products has increased since the war began and will continue to increase during the length of the war. The foreign countries are devoting their farming energies to food and feed rather than livestock production, but they must have meat and they must get a large part of this supply from us.

During the last three months the price of hogs in the United States has been, on an average, more than twice as much as the average price for the five years from 1911 to 1915. In view of the large crop of feedstuffs in sight, however, it is believed that farmers will see the wisdom of taking every reasonable step to increase the supply of hogs and hog products.

W. J. Mallett has practically completed the making of the concrete blocks that are to go into the sidewalks of the new city power plant. Workmen have been busy this week placing the blocks in the building and work is being rushed on other parts of the equipment. There seems little chance of having the plant ready for a test until after the first of the year.

W. G. King took the oath of office on Monday as city treasurer to succeed J. I. Cummings, who was appointed by the council to fill out the term of A. C. Durham until an election could be held. His bond was accepted by the council, but Mr. King will not enter into the duties of his office until the auditor now at work finishes his audit of the books, which will be this week. Mr. King was taken suddenly ill Monday evening with an attack of acute indigestion, but is much improved today and is expected to be out in a few days.

Comrade John E. Neary, who lives at Eleventh and Virginia avenue, reports to the Tribune that he has grown two sweet potatoes in his garden that weighed 12½ and 15 pounds each, and that the remainder of his crop is unusually large. Mr. Neary reported this matter because he read a report of a large potato in the Tribune a few weeks ago, and says that the lands in this section are suited to grow big things, if one will try. The Tribune is glad to have reports from gardeners anywhere in this section, as there are thousands of people in the lands of the frozen North that want to know what is being grown here.

MEXICAN MORMONS TO RETURN TO UTAH

Of the 5,000 colonists of the Mormon church located in Mexico City, only to be forced by revolutionary troubles back across the international line, not more than 500 will stay in Mexico, according to Joseph C. Bentley, who has charge of the colony and who has just arrived in the city. Mr. Bentley reports that only the older men of the colony with large interests in Mexico will return there, because most of the young men, driven across the border, have joined the United States Army.

For the last few years the mountains surrounding the settlements of the colonists have been infested with bandits, who have constantly caused much trouble, but now, according to Mr. Bentley, they are gradually joining the forces of the Mexican government and are fast disappearing. Many of the colonists will return to Utah, while others will remain in Texas and other border states, Mr. Bentley says.—Christian Science Monitor.

KICKS GIRL TO DEATH

Eleven-Year-Old Child Killed by German Inspector.

How a German inspector kicked a young girl to death is told by the Halle Volksblatt:

"The choleric disposition of Provincial Inspector Stertz, of Leitkau, has led to a painful and tragic occurrence. A number of young women and girls were employed in a locality in transplanting turnips, among them being the eleven-year-old daughter of a brewer's assistant named Kohler. The little girl being somewhat careless in her work, the inspector, after angrily calling her 'a little sow,' kicked her repeatedly with his heavy boots until she lost consciousness."

Million Letters In the Mails Today Bearing Magic Words "With the Colors"

Keynote of the Splendid Work the Y. M. C. A. Does Among Our Men In Uniform Is Keeping Them In Touch With the Folks at Home.

STAMPED WITH STARS AND STRIPES AND RED TRIANGLE

Multifarious Ways in Which the Association Appeals to Your Boy, Your Neighbor's Boy, or Some Boy You Know and Love—Creates a Helpful Environment in Cantonment, on Way Overseas, in Front Line Trench and Beyond—First to Aid as He Comes Tottering Back—Give Your Share of the $35,000,000 Required to Accomplish This "Last Evidence That Somebody Cares."

It was evening on the broad Hemstead Plain, where the Rainbow division was spending its last night before embarking for France. It had been raining hard in the afternoon—a cold, steady autumn downpour—and there was nothing to suggest the rainbow in the outward aspect of the camp. Lines and lines of sodden canvas housed 27,000 men, gathered from 27 different states. The ground was dotted with pools and quagmires. Under the wet canvas it was damp and cold, with a penetrating chill. Lit by flickering candles, the tents were far from cheerful shelter for a man's last night in his native land.

But there were seven big tents where electric lights, numbers and friendliness made the night pleasant. At least is on its way to you. Each one of the 10 cantonments, where the new national army is being trained, is using more than a million sheets of this paper every month. In the draft army alone that means 16,000,000 filaments of love every month reaching out from the great encampment where the men are being trained into the greatest army this nation has ever dreamed and binding them to the hearts at home. Multiply that by thinking of all the other places where Uncle Sam has men with the flag—in navy yards, on the high seas, in arsenals and officers' training camps and "Over There" in France. In all these places men are writing home. Those unassuming little sheets of notepaper gladden millions of hearts a day. They transfer more love from one forego coveted possessions or even necessities. The work must go on, because there is no one thing that contributes so much to the spirit and efficiency of the troops. The Y. M. C. A. is working night and day to help the government win this war. And every penny that is given to aid the work is a direct assistance to the health, happiness and strength of your boy and mine.

Snapshots of Kaleidoscopic Work. In all the big cities in France where our men pass through in large numbers, the Y. M. C. A. is operating hostels, where they can get beds and meals at a minimum cost. In London the American Y. M. C. A. has erected a large building for our soldiers and a clubhouse for American officers.

There are Y. M. C. A. dugouts right behind the front line trenches, where the soldiers can get hot drinks, crackers and other comforts at all hours.

Over 1,000 men who had been rejected on account of physical disability have been able to get into the British army by reason of the physical work of the British Y. M. C. A.

A fleet of motor cars leaves the big Y. M. C. A. headquarters in London at midnight every night to pick up soldiers who are wandering about the streets without any wholesome lodging in which to spend the night. These cars are operated by Englishwomen of position and refinement, who report that they never meet any discourtesy at the hands of the soldiers. The importance of this service can be estimated by the fact that at least 50,000 soldiers are on leave in London every week. Over half of these sleep in Y. M. C. A. beds every night.

Entertainment on Vast Scale. The Y. M. C. A. has erected a big auditorium, seating 3,000, in each of the big draft camps, and huge chautauqua tents, seating 1,500 in the other encampments. The association is running a 22 week entertainment circuit among the camps and is paying 16 companies of entertainers, who are traveling to 30 camps performing before the men.

In each of the draft camps the Y. M. C. A. has ten secretaries engaged in educational work. The association is seeing to it that every man who cannot speak English is taught to do so. In many of the camps the association has a singing director, who is teaching the men to sing the popular and martial airs that do so much to keep up their spirits.

Of 64 Y. M. C. A. men at Camp Dix only three are being paid full salaries. In all the camps the majority of the Y. M. C. A. men have left lucrative positions to do this work simply because its appeal is irresistible to any red blooded man. Harry Lauder, the famous Scotch singer and comedian, now on his farewell concert tour in the United States, is giving all his spare time to the service of the association and is singing to the soldiers at all the camps he can reach.

In one of the draft camps the Y. M. C. A. is supervising athletics on 120 playing fields, providing full athletic equipment. The winners of the inter-regimental games will play the champions of the other camps.

One of the greatest services rendered by the association is the making Music, Games, Good Reading and Correspondence Facilities in Y. M. C. A. Building.

In each of these a soldier was strumming on a piano; others were reading books and magazines; hundreds were writing letters home. Behind the raised counter at one end three or four young men were busy passing out notepaper and envelopes, selling stamps and weighing parcels, which the men were sending home. One of the soldiers said to me as I stood in the tent used chiefly by men from Iowa: "We came all the way here from Des Moines, and we were mighty lonely. Then we found this Y. M. C. A. on the job, and it's been a home and more than a home to us. It gave us what we wanted when we needed it most. We'll never forget it. The boys' best friend is the Y. M. C. A."

Fine, Clean-Cut, Upstanding Fellows. How close those benches were packed with men, bending over the long tables absorbed in their writing! What an appeal to the sympathies those great groups of soldiers make! Fine, clean-cut, upstanding fellows, some of them mere boys, one thinks immediately of the sacrifice they have made for the rest of us and how precious they are to some one back home. Somewhere, in far off farm or village or city street, there are parents or brothers or wives who would give all they possess for one glimpse of those sunburned faces as you and I see them on their last night before going across. And it was with a throb of the heart that I watched them, bent over their letter paper, in one after another of those seven big tents.

These were the tents of the Y. M. C. A. On that last night in America the association was serving the soldiers in the best of all ways—giving them an opportunity to write home. On previous nights they had enjoyed boxing bouts, movies, concerts, dramatics and a score of healthy entertainments as well as religious meetings. But on this last night home ties were strongest. And perhaps that is the keynote of the splendid work the Y. M. C. A. is doing among our men in uniform—keeping them in touch with home.

Magic Words, "With the Colors." In these times there are some letters that mean more to us than any we have ever read before. They are written on sheets of paper stamped with the Stars and Stripes and the red triangle of the Y. M. C. A. and they bear the magic words, "With the Colors." There are many more than a million such letters in the mails now while you read this. Perhaps one at part of the world to another than statistics can express. Statistics are pretty poor anyway when it comes to reckoning in terms of love and human tenderness. Let's put it this way: That the Y. M. C. A. is the biggest express company the world has ever seen, and the parcels it is handling are the loves and devotions of human beings.

World's Best Loved Trademark.

This war has made us think hard and fast. Your boy or your neighbor's boy or some boy you know and love has been called to do his share in the big job of policing the world for democracy and human liberty. Is it any comfort to you to know that wherever his duty may call him your boy will have a friend that will serve him in body, mind and soul? Are you glad to know that this friend will place books and magazines at his disposal, organize classes to teach him whatever he wants to learn, give him a pocket testament and invite him to join religious meetings of the faith that he was brought up in? Did you realize that the association provides athletic equipment for his favorite games, teaches him games if he knows none and holds concerts, lectures, movies, Bible classes, dramatic entertainments and every kind of whole some amusement to keep him interested? Are you glad to know that this friend will go with him overseas, help to shield him from a score of difficult and dangerous temptations and follow him right up to the front line trench and beyond it? The last contact the soldier has with this life he loves so well is a cup of tea given him by the Y. M. C. A. free just before he goes "over the top" to a hand to hand struggle with the enemy. And as he comes tottering back from No Man's Land, wounded, but strong enough and plucky enough to keep on his feet, even before his wounds are dressed the Y. M. C. A. is waiting for him with tea and sweet chocolate, the great comforts of the man in the trenches. Do you wonder that the Red Triangle is called "the best loved trademark in the world?" One soldier in France has called it "the last evidence that anybody cares."

If every thinking citizen could see with his or her own eyes something of the actual work being done for our men by the association there would be no question of the Y. M. C. A. having to appeal to the public for money. Rather than let this essential work falter for an instant rich men would sell their motorcars, poor men would out of money orders by which the men can send their pay home to their families. In some of the big camps the Y. M. C. A. is providing banking facilities for the men as well.

Do Your Bit With a Tenner.

This month (November) the Y. M. C. A. must raise $35,000,000 to carry on its work among our soldiers and their allies until next July. Of this $35,000,000 about $24,000,000 will be spent on the work with our own troops or about $10 for every man in Uncle Sam's uniform. If everybody who has received letters from soldiers and sailors were to contribute $10 the task would be easy. Are your boy's health and happiness and clean soul worth $10 to you?

Your town mayor, your pastor, your school superintendent will know who is the treasurer of the campaign committee in your county or town. Otherwise send a check or money order to Cleveland H. Dodge, treasurer, 124 East Twenty-eighth street, New York city.

Only sacrificial giving by millions of givers will make possible the continuance of this vast work for American soldiers and for those of our allies.

PETCOCK ON MANIFOLD FOR FEEDING AIR

"There was one device I placed on my motor that served several purposes but was extremely simple," says W. Penn Lukens in the November issue of McTOLR. "It was a regular one-quarter inch drip cock, screwed into the intake manifold just where it branches to go to the cylinders. The bottom of the drip cock was attached to an iron rod that came through the dash and terminated in a handle. Then when the motor was warmed up, and I had a nice run ahead, I could keep my seat, open the cock in the manifold and admit excess air above the carburetor, giving me an average of ten to fifteen per cent less gas consumption, besides reducing carbon formation."

"Once in a while I fed water or kerosene into the cylinders by means of this device, and found it useful in keeping down carbon in this way as well. When cold weather came I found I didn't need excess air and did need a primer, so I retained the device with the modification that I soldered into the air opening a small brass tube that dipped into the float chamber of the carburetor. Of course I was careful to see that it did not interfere with the float action. Then by keeping the throttle closed, opening the pet cock and turning over the motor, the suction in the manifold drew gasoline directly from the float chamber and sprayed it directly into the manifold near the cylinder, constituting a very effective priming device."

THE ONE SIDE SHE TOOK

She was charming to look upon, this young woman, as she entered the post office, and, after a moment's hesitation, stepped up to the stamp window. The clerk glanced at her admiringly and expectantly, and she asked:

Do you sell stamps here?
With his most courteous smile he assured her that they did.

I would like to see some, please, came the unusual request.
In a dazed sort of a way the clerk handed out a large sheet of the three cent variety, which she examined very carefully. Pointing to one near the center, she said, "I will take this one, please."

BREWERY WILL MAKE SYRUP

The making of syrup and stock feed from watermelons is now under way at the plant of the Dixie Fruit Products Company at the old Mobile brewery. The company plans to make vinegar an output of the plant in the near future, for the making of which machinery will be installed soon. It is announced by the management. For the present syrup and stock feed will be the only output of the plant.—Mobile Register.

About twenty years ago an Exeter chemist named Sawbridge, invented an explosive named fulminate, which was capable of increasing the range of a field gun by five miles. The chemist first approached the government, who caused a series of extensive experiments with the new explosive to be undertaken, the results of which were completely satisfactory.

By this time Germany had got wind of the invention, and offered Sawbridge several thousand pounds for it, but he refused to sell. Then, it is said, our government agreed to pay him several thousands a year until such time as they wished to introduce the explosive into the British army. Six months la-

Home Town Helps

GET THE LOT CLEANED UP

Sound Common Sense in Having Vacant Property Present an Attractive Appearance.

Have you a lot or a block of lots you wish to put on the market the coming season? Are they rough? Are they weedy or brushy? Have they been made more or less of a dumping ground for the past years? If so, you will have two chances to one of selling them this season. The trouble is that the lot is not attractive.

A wise man selling a horse would see to it that the animal was in good flesh and good coat before putting him in the sale stable. Any grocer knows that he can sell more goods if his wares are attractive to the eyes of the prospective customer. No merchant will risk his sales to the imagination of the customer.

The average buyer of a city lot is not gifted with a rosy, constructive imagination. He cannot make a mental painting of a beautiful home grounds out of a rough and ragged vacant lot. In selling anything, from a pair of trousers to a city lot, the salesman should have the help of good looks in his goods in order to make a quick or profitable sale.

It costs little to put the average open, vacant city lot into sale form. If the front third of the lot were smoothed, grassed, clipped regularly and one door-yard tree properly planted and kept the lot would have two chances of a sale where it otherwise would have but one.

You may add this little expense to the sale price, if you like, and it will not hinder the sale. If you put your rough property into an agent's hands you should not be disappointed if it is left lying at the season's end, or if the agent is obliged to shade the price to cover the ugliness of the lot.

GARDEN EVER WORTH WHILE

Plot of Land Need Not Cost a Great Deal of Money, But Deserves Careful Thought.

Now that the value of architectural garden features is becoming more universally recognized, it behooves the homeowner to give the matter due consideration. Few houses are too modest or have grounds too small to permit some such interesting touch. It may be a simple arbor seat, a trellis or even a garden gate, but whatever the architectural features are, the fanciful or grotesque should be avoided and only artistic simple lines be employed.

The question of the material employed in these features is of the utmost importance. A close relationship should be maintained between the materials here and those employed in the adjacent buildings.

While it is not necessary in all cases that a stated material be used, the style and details of the house should always suggest the nature of the garden features; as, for instance, a brick country house of colonial style with exterior trim of which would naturally call to mind visions of white trellis work, white wood pergola or a white arbor along simple colonial lines.

Better Cities, Not Pigger.

It is not a very important fact that Providence is a city of more than 250,000 inhabitants. It has passed the quarter-million mark within a few months, and there is a sentimental satisfaction in knowing it, but it is of more importance that we are developing our harbor resources under a combined federal, state and city scheme; that a city plan commission is constantly studying ways and means to make the city more beautiful; that the habit of public generosity is growing among us; that larger and more frequent sums are being given to good causes, and that the sense of community and cooperation is on the gain. We are glad that Providence is steadily increasing in population, but we ought to be yet more glad that it is also growing better.—Providence Journal.

Glad Hand for Visitors.

Haddonfield, N. J., has hit on a new scheme to make visitors feel they are welcome. In most towns roads entering them are marked with signs calling attention to speed laws and other regulations. Haddonfield is erecting a new sign, which reads:

THANK YOU.
COME AGAIN.

These signs face toward the town, so that they are read as the visitor drives out across the borough line. Such signs will be placed along the borough line at every road or driveway. They are large and elevated. The background is black with large white letters. The attitude is that such a movement will advertise Haddonfield, rather than make the visiting motorist feel that he is suspected of being a speeder.

A Hint.

SOMETHING NEW IN SALADS.

There are a few suggestions that it is well to be reminded of in regard to the selection and care of salad materials. A good, resourceful cook will make an appetizing salad out of almost any sort of good materials.

Care should be used in combining delicate flavors with heavy seasonings.

Fish should not be served with a heavy mayonnaise. Lemon seems most appropriate to use in salad dressings when fruit is to be used.

Pepper Salad.—Select tender green peppers, wash and dry. Cut off the stem and remove the seeds and the white fiber. Shave into fine strips and add equal portions of chopped olives and celery. Cover with a rich mayonnaise and serve in tomato cups or on curled parsley or lettuce.

Russian Salad.—Cut cold roast beef into cubes, minced fried bacon, and mix. All shredded head lettuce, half a cupful of cold, cooked peas and dress with mayonnaise.

Meat Salad.—Cut chicken, beef or veal into fine pieces, discarding all fat or gristle. To each two cupfuls of meat add one cupful of celery and one onion, both minced fine. Just before serving mix with enough dressing to hold together, not enough to make it wet.

Benares Salad.—This is such a well-liked combination that it is becoming Americanized. Equal parts of tart apple, coconut, a little sugar, salt and chopped red pepper and parsley, with a tablespoonful of chopped onion. Serve with French dressing like the above.

Cabbage Salad.—Chop enough cabbage to make a pint. Shell peanuts or walnuts, a half cupful or less. Boil one-half cupful of sugar with a half cupful of vinegar; let cool. Beat a yolk of egg with a half cupful of cream. Mix all together lightly and serve on the cabbage.

Raisin Salad.—To a half cupful of raisins add one cupful of shredded coconut and three chopped apples, a bit of onion juice or green pepper chopped, and serve with French dressing.

A vigorous temper is not altogether an evil. Men who are as easy as an old shoe are generally of as little worth.—Spurgeon.

Give every man thine ear, but few thy voice.—Shakespeare.

USE OF SALAD DRESSINGS.

There is nothing new under the sun, but each housewife may in blending different seasonings create quite unusual effects.

A salad dressing should be suited to the salad with which it is served.

A hot mustard dressing is most inappropriate to a fruit salad as is a heavy mayonnaise dressing on rich meat or fish.

The old stand-by French dressing, may, by the addition of different flavors seem quite like a new dressing. Mashed Roquefort cheese, added to French dressing, served on lettuce is one that is almost universally liked by men.

Chopped green pepper, Spanish onion, chives, cucumber, a piece or two of tomato, in fact almost any vegetable added to French dressing then used on lettuce is well liked.

To make a good French dressing it is necessary that the oil should be perfect and all the ingredients ice cold. The vinegar is another important item. Too acid vinegar makes a dressing too sharp. Good cider vinegar is the best and one part vinegar, (if at all strong, dilute it), to three parts of oil, makes a good combination. Then add such seasonings as seems advisable or such as you have.

Chili sauces, catchups of various kinds, chives, pimentos and many bottled sauces may be used to give variety to a dressing.

One of the most tasty of fruit salad dressings is made of fruit juice, pineapple is especially good, using oil and less of the vinegar.

Chili Dressing.—Make an ordinary French dressing, adding salt and pepper to taste, three tablespoonfuls of oil and one of vinegar, then a few drops of onion juice, a finely chopped green pepper, and enough chili sauce to make the dressing red. Serve this poured over head lettuce or chopped cabbage. Parsley may be used in place of the pepper if it is not liked.

Young onions sliced and served in sour cream with a dash of cayenne and salt is a most appetizing salad for those who know the value of onions in the diet.

Our "Faith Shown by Our Works" —Planting More Citrus Groves

That our faith in the future of the citrus industry of Florida is a matter of practice rather than of theory is proved by the fact that we are increasing our present grove acreage. We shall plant this season as many trees as our obligations to our customers will permit us to take from our nursery stock.

It has never been the policy of Buckeye Nurseries to advocate that which we were unwilling to apply in our own methods. Our advice as to varieties, cultivation and other factors in citrus growing has been based on practical experience. Often, however, advance ground has been taken in our advertising and in our catalogs.

Buckeye Nurseries Stock Selling Rapidly Little Need for Advertising This Season

We do not need to advertise extensively to dispose of our stock of trees for the coming season. The unusually heavy advance reservations give assurance that by the first of the year most of our trees will be taken.

Why, then, are we spending good money in advertising our faith in the citrus industry of Florida? For the reason that we believe in doing so we are rendering a service to the people of Florida, and that as we help them we shall ourselves profit.

Our sources of information are such that naturally we can get a more comprehensive idea of what the citrus industry has in store for it than many any individual grower. We feel under obligation to the industry which we have helped to build to inform the persons engaged in it as thoroughly as we can of what our investigations disclose.

We wish we had half a million more citrus trees than we do for sale this fall. The facts as we see them would justify growers in planting that many more dependable trees. We believe we could dispose of this quantity of stock in addition to that we have. As it is, we can only hope to supply a portion of the demand that exists. Nevertheless, we shall consistently and persistently urge the planting of more citrus groves by all who can get good trees.

If you have no copy of our new catalog, ask us to send you one—free.

RED CROSS ENTERTAINMENT MOST SUCCESSFUL

This was followed by a minuet, "Madame Sherry."

5. Improvements by Professor N. J. Bullard.

The program was enjoyed by every person present and the manner in which the soloists were called on for encores showed to a marked degree the appreciation of the audience. There was standing room only when the curtain went up, and every number on the program was delightful and pleasant.

A fine painting by Mrs. Rush had been donated to the Red Cross fund and was auctioned and sold to Capt. Guy Morgan.

The usual Monday evening card party for the Red Cross will be held at the New St. Cloud Hotel November 19. Mrs. Sam Brammar, Mrs. Dalbey and Mrs. Edd George acting as hostesses.

THE RED CROSS ASSOCIATION

Correspondence recently received from the headquarters of the Southern Branch of the American Red Cross stated that the association had discontinued the name "auxiliary" and that all Red Cross auxiliaries were to be formed into regular chapters. As there has been some controversy as to the obligations of the chapter as compared with that of the auxiliary the undersigned took the matter up with Mr. Ellis director of the Southern Division. The following is an abstract from the reply received:

"In reply to your letter of November 2nd, let me say that changing your auxiliary at large to a chapter will in no way affect your association by placing any obligations on you other than the same optional work you now have. In addition you will have the advantage of retaining a part of your membership fees (on annual subscriptions 50 cts.) to use in buying wool or for other local expenses. And rather than being asked to choose only one kind of work to do, which is the case with auxiliaries at large, you will be free to divide your efforts among any of the Red Cross activities, but not obliged to turn out any amount of work or any special kind of work except what you yourself feel able to do."

I trust that the above will clear the sky and that there may be no misunderstanding hereafter as to what the chapter can or will do. This winter should give us a greatly increased membership and we should all put our shoulders to the wheel and make a good showing. The membership of the St. Cloud chapter is now 250.

The Problem of Shipping Fruit and Vegetables to Avoid Freight Congestion

For several years increasingly difficult for the individual grower to handle, the problem of how and when to ship fruits and vegetables this season will be complicated further by unprecedented freight congestion.

The railroads and other transportation agencies at this time are struggling under a burden of traffic that has strained their capacity to the utmost, and which will be continued as long as the war lasts.

In consequence there will be many times this fall and winter when even the preference given food products, by order of the government, will not prove adequate to carry highly perishable fruits and vegetables into the great markets quickly enough to avoid heavy losses by decay.

Under circumstances of this kind the grower who attempts to market his own produce will be heavily handicapped by lack of complete information regarding market conditions and about the freight situation in various parts of the country. There will be needed more than ever the advice and direction of a well-organized selling agency, with an active traffic department.

The Florida Citrus Exchange will be the growers' salvation in this situation if they use its machinery. They can depend upon the Exchange to know where cars may be moved without delay, and the markets that are paying highest prices. The sales department of the Exchange has been perfecting itself for years and now is higher in point of efficiency than ever before. It gets the facts about markets and freight conditions every day and uses these for the protection and profit of members of the Exchange. Join it and share these profits.

For further information consult the manager of the Exchange packing house or sub-Exchange nearest you or write the business manager of the Florida Citrus Exchange, at Tampa, Florida.
